

SHORT FILM COMPETITION & FESTIVAL 2016-17

ON

END VIOLENCE AGAINST CHILDREN

Women's Feature Service (WFS), with support from UNICEF Maharashtra, is organizing a Short Film Competition on the theme 'Violence Against Children' for students of undergraduate and postgraduate courses in humanities, science, commerce and mass media/communication in colleges and institutes in Maharashtra. Participating colleges/departments/institutes or students should have access to movie camera, editing and post production facilities. The last date for submitting entry forms is August 30, 2016. Post/courier to be sent to: Dr S.B. Arya, Principal, Smita K G Mittal College, Nahar Nagar, Near Liberty Garden, Malad West, Mumbai 400 064.

Alternatively, you can also send the signed and scanned entry form via mail to:
alkagadgil@gmail.com, sruthik237@gmail.com.

Along with the short films, we are also looking forward to receiving posters and radio spots based on the themes mentioned below. This material will be used to create awareness about violence against children. However, please note that the posters and radio spots will not be a part of the competition.

Last date for submission of the short film: Second week of December 2016 in DVD format to be sent to the above mentioned address. In case you want to share movie via Drive/Cloud, please write to us in advance.

Colleges/institutes can send multiple entry forms.

Duration of the film: Not longer than 3 minutes.

Theme and Topics: Corporal Punishment, Child Sexual Abuse, Online Abuse/Cyber Bullying/Abuse through digital space.

The best three short films will be selected by the Jury and will be awarded (in the order of ranking) at the Short Film Festival to be held on January 15, 2017 (tentative) in Mumbai. All participating students will receive a certificate.
